At 2:30 Mr. Herbert thought he had secured a quorum of Democrats and accordingly further proceedings under the call were dispensed with. The previous question was then ordered on the resolution: Yeas, 159; nays, 91. Then commenced a political debate which was opened by Mr. Boutelle, who premised his speech upon the resolution with a remark calling attention to the fact that the first legislative act of the house had been the passage, by unanimous consent, of a bill removing the political disabilities of an ex-confederate who had waited more than twenty years before, desiring to be placed in the line of eligibility to appointment under the executive department of
